Dr Selina Kerr discusses her book, Gun Violence Prevention? The Politics Behind Policy Responses to School Shootings in the United States.

Dr Kerr will share her experiences of travelling to the United States to carry out interviews with experts in gun violence activism and policy-making. Also discussed will be the political responses to three high-profile mass shootings in the United States. Dr Kerr will finish with a debate about what might happen with this movement in future.

Admission is free, but pre-booking is essential. Copies of the book will be available to buy at the event.
